

CS PLANNING CORP.

Notice of Privacy Practices and Cybersecurity Statement

CS Planning Corp. (“CSP,” “firm,” “we,” “us,” and “our”), an investment advisory firm, is committed to safeguarding the confidential information of its clients (“client,” “you,” and “your”). We collect your non-public personal information in order to open and administer your accounts and to provide you with accurate and pertinent advice. We hold all non-public personal information you provide to us in the strictest confidence. If we were to change our policy, we would be prohibited under the law from doing so without advising you first.

We do not maintain any financial marketing partnerships or relationships of any kind and have no expectation of entering into any such relationships in the future. We will get your permission first before we share your personal information with most non-affiliated third parties. However, this does not apply to sharing information with non-affiliated third parties in connection with maintaining or servicing your account, or administering transactions requested or authorized by you. You may direct us not to make disclosures (other than disclosures required by law) regarding non-public personal information to any financial marketing partners or other non-affiliated third parties, should we maintain any. To extent we should ever do so, we will first present you with an opportunity to opt-out of such information sharing. You also have the right to opt out of having your information shared with affiliates of CSP. If you wish to opt-out of disclosures to third parties, please contact CSP at 503-445-1957 or 3395 Garden View Avenue, Portland, Oregon 97225.

CSP and the advisors affiliated with CSP may collect personal information about you from, among other sources, the following:

- applications, questionnaires or other forms;
- discussions with non-affiliated third parties;
- information about your transactions with us or others;
- tax returns and estate planning documents.

CSP uses your personal information only in the following manner:

- We do not sell your personal information to anyone.
- We limit employee access to information only to those who have a business or professional reason for knowing, and only to non-affiliated parties as permitted by law. (For example, federal regulations permit us to share a limited amount of information about you with a brokerage firm in order to execute securities transactions on your behalf, or so that our firm can discuss your financial situation with your accountant or lawyer.)
- We will provide you with notice of any changes in our information sharing practices. If at any time in the future it is necessary to disclose any of your personal information in a way that is inconsistent with this policy, we will give you advance notice of the proposed change so you will have the opportunity to opt out of such disclosure.

- We maintain a secure office and computer environment to ensure that your information is not placed at unreasonable risk.
- For non-affiliated third parties that require access to your personal information, including financial service companies, consultants, and auditors, we also require strict confidentiality in our agreements with them and expect them to keep this information private.
- Federal and state regulators also may review firm records as permitted under law.
- We do not provide any of your information to mailing list vendors or solicitors for any purpose and will not do so without your permission.
- Personally identifiable information about you will be maintained during the time you are a client, and for the required time thereafter that such records are required to be maintained by federal and state securities laws. After this required period of record retention, all such information may be destroyed.

The Safeguards We Maintain to Ensure Information Security:

At CSP, we maintain safeguards that comply with applicable law to secure your nonpublic personal information. We limit access to your nonpublic information, including your personal health information to those employees who need to know that information to assist in providing the financial services you have engaged us to perform. Internally, we implement background checks on all employees and screen for criminal convictions. In addition, we advise them of the privacy policies and practices of CSP, and of the confidential nature of the information they may handle.

To ensure the integrity of the nonpublic information you provide to us, we maintain secure computers and technology. We have installed computer and electronic systems that are backed up daily. We require our computer workstations to authenticate through active directory with passwords that expire periodically and password complexity is enforced through group policy objects. We use up to 12 character computer password encryption. Mobile phones have been confirmed to use 12 digit passwords. We use firewalls, require periodic deletion of individual computer browser histories, and we use antivirus software to further protect the information collected and retained from you.

The Privacy Principles that we uphold throughout CSP also extends to our business partners. The companies with which we may share information about you are required to uphold the same standard of integrity, ethics, and confidentiality with regard to that information. We will reaffirm this policy annually in writing, as long as you maintain an ongoing relationship with CSP.
